Biographical/Historical Sketch

Herman Hassinger was born on August 13, 1929 in Ludwigshaven, Germany. He graduated from Central High School in Philadelphia in 1947 and received his BA in Architecture from the University of Pennsylvania in 1951. During his study at Penn, he received honors from Tau Sigma Delta and Sigma XI and was awarded the Theophilus P. Chandler Fellowship for 1951.

Hassinger obtained his architectural license in 1956. He worked as a designer and draftsman in the office of H.A Shuh from 1954-1957. Then, he formed Hassinger & Schwam with partner Gerald Schwam, in 1957. The firm later became Hassinger, Schwam & White. In 1980, he reorganized as Herman Hassinger Architects.

Hassinger's most notable work were the many churches and places of worship he designed. He was also involved in several projects, both public and residential, on Block Island in Rhode Island.

Hassinger joined the national AIA in 1957 and was a member of Philadelphia Chapter. He served as chapter recorder (1960-1962), first vice-president (1970), president (1971), and as a member of the AIA's administrative official practice committee (1968-1970). Hassinger was also a member of the Guild for Religious Architecture and the American Society for Church Architecture.

Herman Hassinger died on October 25, 2012.

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains the records related to the professional work and practice of Herman Hassinger, a Philadelphia-based architect. It measures approximately eight linear feet and includes architectural drawings, student work, project files, writings, photographic materials (projects, travel, and lectures), as well as scrapbooks documenting his professional portfolio.

The highlights of the collection are the many church projects that Hassinger designed throughout the course of his career, which spanned over 60 years. These projects are particularly well documented in the slides series. Other notable items include materials related to the projects on Block Island in Rhode Island, where Hassinger was a prolific designer and planner.
