

All Computer Are Not Created Equal

Seemingly identical computers may have significant differences that matter in the short and long run:

- Windows 10 Home or Windows 10 S operating systems, instead of Windows 10 Pro – making them incompatible with essential on-campus resources
- 90 day or one-year, mail-in warranties instead of more comprehensive coverage to ensure you have access to your computer when you need it most
- Older processors, lower resolution displays, and not enough memory resulting in usability that might not get you through your time at Penn

The 2017 Back-To-School Sale computers are different because they:

- Are configured with high quality components
- Include extended service and support warranties
- Feature operating systems fully compatible with Penn’s computing environment
- Include longer battery life, lighter weights, more memory, and the latest processors

Accidents happen

Late nights and a hectic schedule can turn your new notebook into soggy paperweight in a heartbeat. Whether it’s spilling your coffee or losing your grip at the top of the stairs, your new Dell and Lenovo notebooks purchased from the 2017 Back-To-School Sale are covered for many of these “oops” moments.

- All of the Dell and Lenovo notebooks we offer include three years of accidental damage protection.
- Accidental Damage Protection can save you from unexpected and expensive repair charges that may not be covered under warranties from other manufacturers

No Worries

All Dell and Lenovo workstation notebooks purchased through the 2017 Back-To-School Sale on Campus Express include:

- A three-year international warranty
- Next-business-day, at-your-home-or-office service
- Accidental damage coverage

These warranties provide 24-hour technical support from the manufacturer, which means you can get help whenever and where-ever you need it most – on campus, off campus, or around the world.

The Computer Connection showroom also serves as a convenient location when you schedule service for your notebook. Just drop off your PC on your way to class and pick it up on your way home.

Lastly

In addition, we provide Free Shipping to your home (domestic only) all summer long. You can also have us hold it for you until you are ready to pick up at the beginning of classes.

You can also choose to bill your purchase to your Student Financial Services Bursar account, which allows you to utilize incoming grants or financial aid packages to help pay for your purchase.
