WINTER-SPRING 2022 INTERNSHIP (NEW HAVEN)

Reed Hilderbrand is currently accepting applications for paid Winter/Spring 2022 Internships at our New Haven office. Internships will be full-time, 40 hours per week.

Successful candidates will possess a proactive and collaborative approach to their work, demonstrate the capacity to think critically and conceptionally, exhibit sound time management, decision-making, and organizational skills, possess strong graphic and verbal communication abilities, and the capacity to use 3D modeling as both a tool for spatial study and presentation tool. Proficiency in CAD (Vectorworks, a plus), Sketch-Up or Rhino, and Adobe Creative Suite is required.

Interns are expected to participate in team meetings, design studies, research and graphic production in all phases of the design process. Candidates selected for an internship will work closely with project managers and design staff on the development of drawing sets and presentation materials for our ongoing public, institutional, cultural, and residential projects. Up to one-half of the intern’s time may be dedicated to research-related work such as: communications with consultants, bibliographic research, literature reviews, conceptual design iteration, prototyping and collaboration with fellow interns and design staff.

Minimum requirements: The candidate should be currently enrolled in or recently graduated from an accredited Master in Landscape Architecture program. Applications from students enrolled in accredited Master in Architecture programs who have experience in landscape design, or who have a curiosity to learn more about it, will also be considered.

Depending on office needs, there may be an opportunity to extend Winter/Spring Internships through the Summer. We would appreciate it if you could let us know your desired internship duration and the hours you could commit to working on a weekly basis in your application. We will consider part-time applications on a case-by-case basis.

Please send a cover letter, resume and work samples to Tamara Taylor hr@reedhilderbrand.com in PDF form (>5mb) or via link. Please include both student work and relevant professional work.

No phone calls or recruiters please. Thank you!
Reed Hilderbrand is a landscape architecture firm comprised of 65 dedicated, passionate professionals, based in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and New Haven, Connecticut.

We are committed to design excellence and the pursuit of dynamic collaborations with mission-driven organizations, institutions, communities, and individuals. Together, we create landscapes that connect daily life with the visible systems of nature and the underlying patterns of culture to shape place, communicate purpose, and express shared values. Through renewal and reinvention, we seek clarity without losing complexity, and respect history while enabling new understandings.

To learn about our firm, please visit: www.reedhilderbrand.com

Reed Hilderbrand is proud to be an Equal Opportunity Employer. We are committed to an environment of mutual respect, and seek to cultivate an inclusive, welcoming, and collaborative community.

Reed Hilderbrand provides equal opportunities for all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, creed, national origin, sex, age, ancestry, sexual orientation, genetics, pregnancy, marital status, gender identity/expression, disability, handicap, military obligations, veteran status or any other category protected by law. Reed Hilderbrand does not tolerate discrimination of any kind and will not allow any form of retaliation against individuals who raise concerns of equal employment opportunity.

External and internal applicants, as well as position incumbents who become disabled as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act must be able to perform the essential job functions (as listed) either unaided or with the assistance of a reasonable accommodation to be determined by management on a case-by-case basis.