

Director of Preservation Services

The Preservation Alliance for Greater Philadelphia (PA) is hiring for a Director of Preservation Services. This is a management position that reports to the Executive Director. The person filling this position is expected to manage and oversee the Preservation Alliance's portfolio of almost 250 preservation easements located primarily in the Philadelphia region, and to pursue new easement opportunities as necessary.

The successful individual will be flexible, able to think strategically, and be able to effectively delegate responsibilities in order to drive projects forward and work with others in a collaborative and supportive yet direct manner. The successful candidate will be a dynamic, people-centered, proactive individual with strong technical and communication skills.

Desired qualifications include:

- A minimum of three years working in historic preservation, urban planning, architecture, architectural history, real estate or similar;
- An educational background in historic preservation, architectural history, real estate or related fields.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to
