Designer: Full Time, 2-4 years exp.
designLAB architects seeks talented, self-motivated designer to join our collaborative team to design and deliver unique civic and cultural projects. Applicants should have 2-4 years of professional experience and either an undergraduate or graduate architecture degree.

Candidates will support our project teams in all aspects of design and documentation, including developing working drawings, renderings, graphic design and concept design materials. Primary software used includes Adobe Creative Suite, MS Office and Revit. Excellent hand drawing and model building skills are desirable. Path to licensure is required. Position available immediately. Competitive salary and benefits based on experience. Please submit a cover letter, resume, references and work samples to careers@designlabarch.com designLAB architects seeks talented, self-motivated project architect to join our collaborative team to design and deliver unique civic and cultural projects. Applicants should have 5-7 years of professional experience and either an undergraduate or graduate architecture degree.

Project Architect: Full Time, 5-7 years exp.

Ideal candidate will have a strong project delivery understanding including developing construction documents and details, material and building system research and consultant BIM coordination. Clear communication and strong management and organization skills are required. Applicants should be proficient in Revit, MS Office and the Adobe Creative Suite. Excellent hand drawing and model building skills are desirable. Position available immediately. Competitive salary and benefits based on experience. To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume, references and work samples to careers@designlabarch.com