

Historic Preservation Professional Development Fellowship Application

The Department of Historic Preservation is pleased to offer a limited number of Historic Preservation Professional Development Fellowships to attend academic conferences each semester. Students must be in good academic standing to apply. Applications are rolling. Funds are limited and will be distributed on a first come-first serve basis. Funding will not exceed $1,500 per student in a single academic year. You must apply at a minimum of two weeks before the scheduled event

If awarded, Historic Preservation Professional Development Fellowships will be distributed in the form of a lump sum to the recipient, travel purchased on your behalf, or Concur reimbursement. The department will determine the best payment process and will coordinate directly with the student.

Before submitting your application please confirm:

I am in good academic standing

I have met with my academic advisor and they approve me attending this academic conference

I will email my professors regarding any missed class and will make up any missed work

Please upload your application to this BOX folder.
