

University of Pennsylvania Stuart Weitzman School of Design

Mission

The Weitzman School of Design prepares students to address complex sociocultural and environmental issues through thoughtful inquiry, creative expression, and innovation. As a diverse community of scholars and practitioners, we are committed to advancing the public good—both locally and globally—through art, design, planning, and preservation.

Facilities

The Weitzman School occupies six historic buildings on Penn's verdant campus—Charles Addams Hall (1959), the Frank Furness-designed Fisher Fine Arts Library (1890), the Franklin Building Annex (1945/1963), Meyerson Hall (1967), Stuart Weitzman Hall (1892), and the former Philadelphia Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church (c. 1920)—as well as space at The Pennovation Works, 3401 Walnut Street, and 3600 Market Street.
